DAILY COTTON LETTER. EW YORK, Dec. 9.—The following is daily cotton letter of Atwood, Violett Co. by private wire to C. W. Branch

The Liverpool short interest evidently covered largely this morning, as the decline there of 2 or 3 points was recovered, the market closing firm. This brought out sympathetic buying orders large, and the market opened 3 points better. The port receipts indicated a free movement again, and further liquidation of the long interest with some haw short selling, forced prices down 11 points from the highest of the day. There was rather a steady feeling at the close, and should Liverpool show as much should Liverpool show as much it would indicate that they considered coprassing influences of a continued intest year. The snovement, however, receipts are estimated at 285,000 bales. Scalist 206,000 bales last year. This heart week eighty to ninety thousand, proof will receive these estimates on Moncay, and our decline to-day, notwith-standing the steadier feeling there. This The Liverpool short interest evidently will naturally bring about easier prices on the other side, but the extent of it will determine whether to-day's decline here has discounted their decline Monday, if there is a decline, or whether we will drop still lower. Our crop advices continue of the same character as those we have been receiving, and to which we have continually referred during the last sixty days, as indicating a crop much under Mr. Neill's estimate. What bullish opinion we have had has been based upon letters from the entire cotton district, and unless the writers have been extremely mistaken in their opinion of extremely mistaken in their opinion of the out-turn in their respective sections, the falling off, comparatively and relatively, must begin in the near future to confirm reports that have been received from the cotton belt predicting a disappointing out-turn, from what they were led to expect sixty days ago. In order to realize a crop of 7.750,000 bales, there nust come into sight 3.500,000 bales. At present, however, it does not seem to be so much a matter of the size of the crop as it is that the supply is greater than the demand, and until those conditions are reversed, it looks as though we will have to wait for a spot advance that will be permanent. The South is offering cotton freely to-day, and this became a bear argument here after such telegrams became known.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, ILL., Dec. 9.—The market for wheat was dull to-day, but the undertone was firm. The range covered but 140%c. May closing %c. higher than yesterday and at the outside.

Corn was quiet but firm on covering of the shorts and in sympathy with wheat. The opening was unchanged from yesterday, advanced %c., cased off on the larger estimated receipts for Monday, and closed 140%c. higher than yesterday. Oats were only moderately active and derived their tone from the other grain markets. The opening was about %c. higher than yesterday's close, advancing 140%c, receding, and closing at initial figures, lec. over yesterday.

Provisions opened weak on free offerings, a further decline being made on absence of support. Although prices for hogs were higher, the product did not respond. The large receipts of live hogs this week, and anticipated heavy runs next week, were responsible for the easy feeling. There was a slight reaction during the day on some covering by shorts, but just before the close the recovery was lost, and final figures were near the lowest of the day. January pork closed 15c. under yesterday, January hard 5c. lower, and January ribs c. lower.

GOSSIP FROM FULTON.

An Exciting Runaway-New Athletic Club -Other News.

One of the grandest entertainments ever held in this section was given at the old Fulton Baptist church last Thursday night by the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the Denny-Street Methodist Episcopal church. The committee of ladies in charge helped in a great way to make the merry moments pleasant. It was ar evening well spent and one long to be re membered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. Last Thursday night about 7 o'clock there was an exciting runaway on Williamsburg avenue, when the horse owned by Mr. Thomas Cumber became frightened. Mr. Cumber, who was seated in the wagon, in attempting to control the ani mal, was thrown out, but was not hurt much. The horse continued in his mad flight for several squares, when he collided with a telegraph pole at the corner of Denny and Louisiana streets. He was found to be so seriously injured that it days ago refused an offer of $175 for the

A new club has been started on Nicholson street, known as the Fulton Athletic Club. A good many of the young men attend twice a week with the hope of learning the manly art of self-defence. Mr. Henry Boltz, who died last Sunday morning at his residence on Williams-burg avenue, had been a resident of this section for rixty years. He was well and favorably known in this locality. The funeral took place from the Lutheral church, of which he was a member. The American Legion of Honor, No. 954, held a large and enthusiastic meeting at Powhatan Hall last night. There were six initiations—three ladies and three gen-tlemen. Mr. J. P. Martin, a newly-elected member, addressed the club, as did also several other members. The legion is on a boom in this locality.

Presentation of People of Renown * * * * * To the Readers of The Times

O make a voyage around the world and meet the crowned heads of Europe as well as the most distinguished people in this country and abroad, would cost a lot of money. wouldn't it, even if you had the entree into their society? But suppose you could sit in your own home with your wife and children around you and come FACE TO FACE with splendid photographs of those people of note, that would be quite a big step toward knowing them-as near, perhaps, as you will ever get

And when you begin to weary of studying the features of this class of society we will show you a good many places and things in far-away climes that many of your brethren

With the old Greeks, to see was to know. The same word which expressed the act of vision denoted also the proception of the mind. Nor may it be doubted that of all the avenues between the inward and spiritual soul of man and the outward and visible world of tangible things, the sense of sight is the brightest and most delightful. Vision is the sense alike of in formation and ideality—the open way of knowledge and of dreams. The advantages of pictorial representation as a means of informing and verifying can hardly be exaggerated. Wherever travel is practicable, there the lens, with its quick flash of light and swif ly caught image of nature and man, has come in to supply the deficiency and to transmit to homes in distant lands the picture and vision of the reality Now, if you will go with us on this
